Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Agricultural Policies, Vol. 1: Reports of Sub-Committee The wholesale prices for all farm products have kept pace with and exceeded the increase in the price of all commodities. But producers of meat and of milk have not received price advances proportional to the price advances either on all other commodities or on all other farm products. The output of farm products with rare exceptions such as sheep increased during the war period. The estimated income to the farmers in the United States increased 112 from 1910 to 1917, as compared with an increase of 20 to manufacturing light and power companies. Wages for agricultural labor have not increased as rapidly as have wages in manufacturing industries nor as rapidly as the general price level. The result is that farming communities are short of competent labor. In 1910 38 of the farms in this country were operated by tenants. This percentage is rapidly increasing. The use of fertilizers has not kept pace with the need because of prices for fertilizers as compared with prices for farm products. The United States Bureau of Markets has expanded its informational service, but does not present this informational service in a form which makes it of much value to the average farmer. It sends out a great mass of detailed figures which are neither digested nor interpreted. It has not, however, made an extended survey of the need for co-ordinating wholesale and retail marketing facilities in cities with transportation by rail, water, wagon and truck. Approximately $294,000,000 from national funds have been made available for aid to state roads in 1920 and the states have appropriated an additional $385,000,000 for...
