In a writing class, the teacher had us pull an adjective and a verb from a hat. I got frosted and cowboy. What the heck am I going to do with that? I thought, so I just wrote, I ll have a Frosted Cowboy, I said to the bartender. I wrote two pages and turned it in; my teacher loved it and wanted more. So I developed it into the story of a woman whose Plan A didn t work out when she had never even considered a Plan B. At the time, my own Plan A was failing, and I had never really considered a Plan B. My story is nothing like Laney s, but I wanted to see where her story would go. It seems your books could fit into several genres. How would you categorize them? Laney Delaney is a lovable heroine who finds herself in ridiculous dating and work situations, so I d categorize them as chick lit or romantic comedies....
