Nothing could be further from the truth. In regards to the payment limitations, our organization is very much against them and the means testing. It makes little sense to us to see why someone in a 2, 000 acre farm should not get benefits while someone in a 800 acre farm should, especially in cotton, in a situation where the cost of production is substantially higher, 2 to 3 times that of grain. To penalize an individual because of their own success in growing their business; where 5 years ago maybe they qualified, today they dont; again, it seems to make no sense to me. And to deny someone benefits upon their own personal situ-ation or whether they have personal finances, investments or other earned wages, again, it doesnt seem to make much sense, in rela-tion to their farming operations. And to the U. S. , why should that matter Because the benefits of all the producers...
