Franklin- Cassey and her horse Chocolate have competed in local shows before, so the arena is nothing new for them. Now, however, they re running with the big dogs--er, horses--in the Birmingham Junior Eventing Regionals! The night before their favorite event, disaster suddenly strikes. Just when things calm down, horses begin to suspiciously disappear and Cassey finds herself thrown into the middle of a giant mystery. Will she be able to catch the criminal or are the horses truly lost forever? Join Cassey and Chocolate in this thrill ride of an adventure as they try to face their fears in order to pass their biggest life-test yet--the TRUE test. For more of Cassey s books, please visit At the young age of seven, author Anna Franklin began her writing and illustrating career. Her first book, Pentelope Penguin and the Moving Day, led her to continue writing this children s series full of quality life lessons for a little penguin named Pentelope. ( She and Pentelope capture the hearts of elementary school age children all over her community, and she loves sharing with them still. When Anna was ten, KLC Cuddles or Cuddlebug stole her heart the first time she saw an ad for the magnificent American Paint with big blue eyes. With winnings from a science fair, she helped buy her very first horse. From the years of reading about horse gentling, Anna knew that was the path she wanted for she and Cuddles. Over time, the two are growing into the best of friends. Anna dreamed of writing horse stories like the ones that had stoked the fire...
