For defrayment of the costs of this administration provinces receive annuities from the state treasury. This kind of administration exists separate from and beside the state administration. To a far greater extent the communes are intrusted, or rather charged, with tasks of state administration, namely: Care of paupers, the collection of state taxes, keeping the registers of marriages, births, and deaths, primary schools, keeping registers of enrollment, contributions or serviees for the army and navy, construction of public roads, and the maintenance of police force. For these purposes the state grants no means, for which reason the efficiency of the communes appears to be taxed to the utmost. Yet in case of overburdening the superior...
