Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Like its companion book In God We Trust, published in 2000 and written for the American people, warning of something that would trigger a seemingly endless series of misfortunes that began with the events on 9/11/2001 and was followed by huge hurricanes, floods, tornadoes, wild fires, financial turmoil and a property market crash from which she is still struggling to recover. So too does A Rush To War! written ten years later, this time for the British people, warn of events of unimaginable horror lying ahead. Only by the War in Iraq becoming protracted and the sacrifice of those brave souls who fell has made it possible for this vital information to come out.
