Take Millie: a fun, independent dance teacher starting over, whose burlesque classes are all about self-esteem and empowerment. Her new life plan definitely doesn t stretch to bad boys. And Ed: he s gorgeous, designs firework displays for a living and positively self-destructs at the thought of commitment. But he s embarking on the impossible - a challenge to have ten dates with one woman. When Millie literally lands in Ed s lap after an accident, she s an unlikely choice for the ten date challenge - scruffy, opinionated and then there s the small matter of that tattoo snaking out of her boot - but he s running out of options, and more importantly, she owes him. She s so not his type, he s so not in her life-plan, but a weekend in sunny Provence changes everything. Against a backdrop of starry skies and lavender fields, they both have issues they want to leave behind. Secrets have a way of escaping though.is ten dates too long to keep the truth under wraps?
