AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Laugh on paper, each instant to grasp; to create liberty for what God promised would be. Hands down, I love this poem. Honest, inspiring, deep, Jondrea Nicole certainly has a way with words. Katrina Gilder Jondrea Nicole captivates the mind, body, spirit, and soul in pieces like Miss Mosaic and The Reason Why. Jondrea is definitely on the rise with a soulful compilation of genuine emotion that radiates through her grown and sexy poetry. L. T. Larkin, author Jondrea participates in the Alexandria Museum of Art s Spoken Word Poetry Series: Rhythm and Rhymes. I have had the opportunity to review some of the works presented in this book, and this poet explores painful experiences and struggles, just as many artists using this form. These works work through the struggle to find a positive and hopeful slant. When I read and listen to these works, I feel good about the future even as I struggle with the past and in the present. This a message we should all work to bring to our communities as we seek to understand each other and create a shared future of equality for all.
