

From Korea to the World 2: A Journal of a Journalism Professor (Paperback)

By Dr Won Ho Chang

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a journal of Dr. Won Ho Chang, a retired Korean-American journalism professor. Dr. Chang was born in a rural town, Umson of South Korea, educated and had a successful career as a distinguished professor of journalism in the University of Missouri, and traveled around all over the world. Dr. Chang benefited most from my grandfather's vision and teaching of the Confucian values and philosophy, which emphasized personal and governmental morality, correctness of social relationships, justice and sincerity. He was told by my grandfather that my life's destiny came under the sign of the running horse, which would carry me around the world. The source of this Confucian prophecy, the Book of Changes, considered the cycle of one life span to be 60 years. He has now surpassed that cycle by over a decade, but my destiny continues to keep me running. This book is an examination of that destiny and looks back at what he has done to accomplish his goals along the way. Dr. Chang's first goal was to achieve the highest level of education. He...
