

Individually Bonded

By Henri Charles Schmid

Fulton Books Okt 2015, 2015. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 229x152x19 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Individually Bonded is a fascinating and captivating story, inspired by the events experienced by a small group of students attending a high school in the European coastal town of Grintpeurt. These students spontaneously came together from diverse walks of life to form a team of friends. Drawn to each other through sheer gut instincts and first impressions, they were initially unable to explain the reasons they were drawn to each other. Sometime later, they realized it was because of sharing a variety of traditional values. As classmates, they followed their hearts and their desires to form friendships with a few other students to fulfill a need to develop social skills. This friendship lead to some exciting encounters, events, and activities. Their adventures strengthened the cohesiveness of the group as a close-knit circle of friends. It evolved into solid, long lasting friendships between these individuals. In some cases, the friendship gravitated to more serious relationships including marriage. Unintentionally, two of these friends, a girl and a boy, stood out and became the core of the group. Without realizing...
